Common-Sense Investing

Dear Client,

I'm always looking for insights that will provide value to my clients. When it comes to investing Warren Buffett is a legend, he's possibly the greatest investor in the world.

Once a year some 30,000 people attend the annual shareholders' meeting of his company Berkshire Hathaway, in Omaha Nebraska. I had the good fortune to attend this year and wanted to provide you with an update.

The main event took place on Saturday, May 3rd – we all gathered for a lengthy five hour question and answer session with Mr. Buffett and his partner Charlie Munger. It was an extraordinary opportunity to see them in person, and hear their thoughts on a wide range of topics. Their common sense approach to investing is a philosophy that guides the recommendations and advice I provide to you and all my clients.

I also had the opportunity to visit with many fund managers to hear their views of the current investment landscape and share ideas of what is to come. It was a terrific chance to stay on top of the markets and ensure I continue to provide you with the best advice possible.

As always, please call if you have questions or would like to discuss your portfolio.

Sincerely,

Nancy Griffin, CFP, EPC
